Norfolk, Va., Sept. 6.—The features today of the Jamestown Exposition athletic meet was the breaking of the junior record for throwing the 56-pound weight, by P. McDonald, of the Irish-American Club; the lowering of the half-mile running record three seconds by F. C. Sheehan, of Boston, Mass., and the pole vaulting of E. T. Cook, Irish-American Athletic Club, who came within four inches of the world's record.

Events Closely Contested.

The events were closely contested and spectacular, the Irish-American team winning the day's honors on points. The 100-yard dash was a neck-and-neck run between Gerhardt and Keating. Sullivan's finish in the mile race after the handicap of a bad start, taking the lead in a final sprint, electrified the big crowd present.
